ADDELON BRAVEBOY | OFFICIAL ARTIST BIOGRAPHY 2026

2020 Young Kings Calypso Monarch | 2023 African Entertainment Awards USA — Best Calypso/Soca

Born and raised in Enterprise, Chaguanas, Trinidad and Tobago, Addelon Braveboy, professionally known as Banjela, is a calypsonian, soca recording artist, singer, songwriter and composer whose music celebrates Caribbean identity, cultural heritage and the power of storytelling.

A passionate advocate for Trinidad and Tobago's musical traditions, Banjela blends the wit and narrative strength of calypso with the infectious rhythms of soca and contemporary Caribbean influences. His performances and recordings seek to entertain, inspire and connect audiences across generations and borders.

Career and recognition

Banjela earned national recognition when he captured the Young Kings Calypso Monarch title in 2020. That same year, he was recognized among the NACC Top 20 Stars of Gold. His artistic reach expanded internationally with a 2023 African Entertainment Awards USA award for Best Calypso/Soca, marking a significant milestone in his growing career.

Music and new releases

For the 2027 Carnival season, Banjela has introduced "KAISO", a musical tribute to the legendary Mighty Sparrow, produced by Jagsey Production on the Orione Riddim. He has also released "IN DE SPIRIT", a J'ouvert-inspired soca music video produced by Juelio Productionz, with visuals by Harpy Lyef Entertainment. Beyond its festive energy, "IN DE SPIRIT" carries a message of unity, hope and collective responsibility in the face of violence and social challenges.

Vision

With ambitions to carry his sound further into international Caribbean and Afrobeat markets, Banjela remains committed to creating music that honours the foundations of calypso while embracing new audiences and fresh creative possibilities. His mission is to amplify Trinidad and Tobago's cultural voice on the world stage.
